Dear Parents/Guardians

It's hard to believe we're already half way through the term! Here are our successes and celebrations so far already this term:

Congratulations to our newly formed football team - we were out at our first tournament of the year at KA this week. The team playing exceptionally well. Here are the match results:

- St Nicholas v Marchant Holliday 2-0
- St Nicholas v Horsington 2-0
- St Nicholas v Milborne Port 1-0
- St Nicholas v Our Ladies 4-0

Our team got a place in the semi-final but lost to the tournament winners 1-0.

Well done Theo, Jayden B, Archie, Lauren, Ben H, Ellie, Charlie P, Jacob C, Josh B and Harley = excellent team work everyone!

A very special thank you to Mrs Crabb for giving up her break time to coach the team for this event. (Our photos have been put on our website - Sports & Physical Activities Tab)

Well done to Ruby H in Year 5 for gaining merit in Grade 2 ballet; you can see Ruby on our website.

New school project - LOTC

Today we welcomed a fantastic new project led by Mr J Ingrams. J has a wealth of experience in this area as LOTC leader as well as being a Deputy Head. Our Learning Outside the Classroom project is aimed at Upper KS2 so today Group A enjoyed a full programme. Our LOTC news will be posted on our website on our new LOTC tab next week.

Weekly Class Dojo Winners

Well done to all of our super learners:

In the last fortnight...
